The following communique, dated Delhi 7th April 1933, issued by the Government of India, regarding the nomination by the Govenor-General of India of European British subjects for admission to the Royal Military College, Sandhurst, England, is published for general information :—

Press Communique.

New Delhi, the 7th April 1933.

Consequent on the abolition of the Army Entrance Examination for the admission of Indian and Anglo-Indian gentlemen to the Royal Military Academy, Woolwich, and the Royal Military College, Sandhurst, the following revised instructions are issued in connection with the nomination by the Governor-General of India of a limited number of European British subjects who are the sons of parents, residents in India, for admission to the Royal Military College, Sandhurst, England.

2 To be eligible for such nomination, a candidate will be required to qualify at the competitive examination held in India for admission to the Indian Military Academy, Dehra Dun. A candidate who wishes to appear at this examination must fulfil the following conditions:—

(a) Be a British subject and the son of British subjects, and be of pure European descent.

(b) Be unmarried.

(c) Be medically fit.

(d) Be in possession of a recognised school leaving certificate, or have matriculated.

(e) Have attained the age of 18 years and not have attained the age of 19 years on the 1st July for the following September entry to Sandhurst; and on the 1st January, for the following February entry to Sandhurst.

(f) Have qualified at the entrance examination for admission to the Indian Military Academy.

3. Full information regarding the subjects for the entrance examination to the Indian Military Academy; the fees for the examination; and the standard of medical fitness are contained in the Provisional Regulations respecting admission to the Indian Military Academy, Dehra Dun, 1932. This pamphlet can be obtained from the Manager, Government of India, Central Publication Branch, Old Press Buildings, Civil Lines, Delhi—price two annas plus cost of amendments.

4. Candidates desirous of nomination for the term at Sandhurst commencing about the beginning of February will be required to qualify at the examination for admission to the Indian Military Academy the previous October; and those desirous of nomination for the term at Sandhurst commencing about the beginning of September will be required to qualify at the examination for admission to the Indian Military Academy the previous March-April.

5. The number of candidates who may be nominated by the Governor-General of India for admission to the Royal Military College, Sandhurst, is limited to a maximum of four annually.

6. Candidates nominated will not be eligible for Prize Cadetships at Sandhurst, or for a free passage to the United Kingdom.

7. The appointment of cadets, after passing out of the Royal Military College, Sandhurst, to particular regiments of cavalry and infantry and to the Royal Tank Corps will be governed by the existence of vacancies and the requirements of the service.

8. Copies of the form of application may be obtained by prospective candidates direct from the Secretary to the Government of India, Army Department. Applications for admission to the March examination and the following September term at Sandhurst must reach the Secretary to the Government of India, Army Department, by 1st December and for admission to the October examination and the following February term at Sandhurst, by the 15th June.

9. Copies of question-papers used at previous entrance examinations for admission to the Indian Military Academy can be obtained from the Manager, Government of India Central Publication Branch, Delhi. The regulations respecting admission to the Royal Military College, Sandhurst, are available with His Majesty's Stationery Office, London.

By Order,
R. RANGA RAO,
Chief Secretary to Government.
